MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director (Plans)

SUBJECT: Alan Valentine

1. Attached is a list of do's and don'ts to Alan Valentine at the 4:00 pm meeting this afternoon. Attached also are various memoranda which bear upon the problem and which give a good indication of everyone's point of view. They would, I am sure, help to educate him if you think it wise to show them.

2. I have not given a copy of these to the DDGI. You will perhaps wish to speak to him about it before the meeting in order to present a common front.

SUBJECT: Guidance to Alan Valentine

(1) Avoid statements as to plans for elaborate RFA expansion pending review and approval of proposals for future operations presently being developed by CFA.

(2) Bear in mind State's comments re avoidances generally of activities which duplicate those of USIS and the VOA.

(3) Avoid critical comments of Voice of America.

(4) Avoid comparison between USIS and CFA; VOA and RFA.

(5) Bear in mind that present RFA programs should not be considered as a pattern for future operations. Rather it should be considered as a means of establishing the Committee for a Free Asia, and as a means of gaining experience for future operations.

(6) Bear in mind that State's present coolness towards the Committee for a Free Asia and NCFE with respect to radio may change, if and when Barrett moves out.

(7) Bear in mind State's emphasis on coordination.

(8) Show Valentine State's approval in principle of the operating program.

(9) Avoid, at least initially, situations which call for CFA public statements on US foreign policies in Asia.

(10) Show Valentine, Wiener's memorandum of conversation concerning the introduction of Valentine to State Department representatives.
